Dear Friends,

According to William Wordsworth "That best portion of a good man's life; his little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love." Every hand that helps build a Habitat home is remembered. The acts are not nameless although the name belonging to the hand may not be remembered clearly. The actions are remembered. All the homeowner has to do is stand in their kitchen cooking, sleep in a warm bed with a roof over their head, or sit around the Christmas tree with family and friends.

When someone moves into their home, there is such joy and gratefulness for everyone who has helped make it possible. If you ever speak with our homeowners after they have lived in their home for a while, you will still feel the joy for the hands that raised the walls. There is gratefulness for the hands that hung the vinyl siding. There is thankfulness for the hands that painted the walls. They may not remember the names, but they remember the kindness and love showed by those who worked side by side with them to build their home and begin creating amazing memories that will last a lifetime.

Builds Update

Ozark Build

It has been great building with so many volunteers in Ozark! We have had Miss Alabama contestants, Ft. Rucker soldiers, Dothan Roller Derby ladies, Wiregrass Habitat Women Build members as well as great community volunteers. Thank you all for what you have done! We are excited to have the vinyl siding on the house. Thank you all who helped hang it. We look forward to multiple volunteer days with Publix employees! Every day brings us closer to helping Ms. Hume and her son move into their forever home!

Daleville Build

Planning is underway for our Daleville build! We know that we are going to have so many wonderful volunteers on this build. This build will begin in the next few months, so read our newsletter and check our website and Facebook for updates!

Thanks for taking the time to catch up on your local Habitat affiliate. Hope to see you on a job site, at the Habitat ReStore, or at a home dedication sometime soon!
